Introduction

The Enacted Budget for the State of California for Fiscal Year 2020-21 reflects the goals and objectives for addressing the state's greatest needs in the face of the ongoing economic crisis and COVID-19 pandemic. Because of the enormity of the need, the ability to leverage federal funding opportunities will be crucial. This report identifies the federal grant opportunities available to meet the following key priorities identified in the enacted budget:

-  Saving Lives and Emergency Response
-  Encouraging Recovery
-  K-12 Education
-  Higher Education
-  Health and Human Services
-  Homelessness and Local Government
-  Public Safety
-  Natural Resources
-  Environmental Protection
-  Statewide Issues and Various Departments

The Governor’s Enacted Budget includes two additional priority areas, “Labor and Workforce Development” and “Judicial Branch.” The “Labor and Workforce Development” topic is included in the “Encouraging Recovery” chapter. Similarly, the “Judicial Branch” does not have a chapter but related opportunities may be found in the “Public Safety” chapter. The Governor’s Proposed Budget presented in January also included three additional priority areas – “Early Childhood,” “Housing,” and “Climate Resilience” – that are included here in the Appendix. Although these last three topics were unfunded in the Enacted Budget due to the unprecedented fiscal crisis caused by the global pandemic and economic slowdown, they represent ongoing critical needs and priorities for the State.

This report highlights these priority areas and the competitive federal grant programs available to meet those needs. Included are the available Project Grants, which provide funding for fixed periods of time for specific projects. These include federal assistance for research, demonstration, planning, technical assistance, construction, fellowships, scholarships, and other projects. Not included in this list are Formula Grants, which are allocations to States or other geographic areas in accordance with distribution formulas prescribed by law or administrative regulation for continuing activities, nor are other types of federal assistance such as direct payments, loans, insurance, property and goods, advisory services, and other types with the exception of these Project Grants, which may awarded via a contract or cooperative agreement.

Each federal grant opportunity is listed in order of its Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA) subject, or functional category, which includes the following:

Agriculture • Business and Commerce • Community Development • Disaster Prevention and Relief • Education • Employment, Labor, and Training • Energy • Environmental Quality • Food and Nutrition • Health • Housing • Income Security and Social Services • Law, Justice, and Legal Service • Natural Resources • Regional Development • Science and Technology • Transportation

For each federal grant opportunity, the following information is provided:

CFDA [Grants.gov]	Assistance Listing	Agency	Applicant Eligibility (See Index, Page 4)	FY 2020	Brief Description of Assistance Listing
------------------------------------	---------------------------	---------------	---	----------------	--

CFDA is the five-digit Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance identification number. The first two digits identify the Federal department or agency that administers the assistance listing, and the last three numbers are assigned in numerical sequence. The CFDA number includes a link to the available opportunities for that grant program listed on grants.gov (or the program website, where applicable).

Assistance Listing is the title, or the descriptive name given to a listing, which includes programs, projects, services, processes, and activities that provide assistance or benefits to the American public. Some assistance listings may be better known by other popular names or alternative titles. “(New)” indicates that this is a new assistance listing in the CFDA.

Agency is the Federal department, agency, commission, council or instrumentality of the government, and the primary organizational sub-unit (the administering office) that has direct operational responsibility for managing an assistance listing. The following is the list of federal agency acronyms included in this report:

CNCS	Corporation for National and Community Service
DHS	Department of Homeland Security
DOC	Department of Commerce
DOD	Department of Defense
DOE	Department of Energy
DOI	Department of the Interior
DOL	Department of Labor
DOT	Department of Transportation

NEA	National Endowment for the Arts
NSF	National Science Foundation
SBA	Small Business Administration
SSA	Social Security Administration
TREAS	Department of the Treasury

A Brief Description of the program is derived from the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA).

More information on each assistance listing can be found at sam.gov or in the annual Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance published jointly by the Executive Office of the President Office of Management and Budget and the U.S. General Services Administration. Additional verification of assistance listing criteria can be found with each awarding Federal Agency.

The grants.gov website is the definitive source for federal agencies to post discretionary funding opportunities and for grantees to find and apply to them. Searches can be performed by applicant eligibility, keyword, federal agency, category, and other functions. Applications for federal assistance are also submitted through grants.gov by registered users. More information on the multi-step process to register and be able to apply for grants can be found on the grants.gov registration page.

For Assistance Listings of interest that do not currently have available opportunities, grants.gov provides registered users the ability to save searches of Assistance Listings of interest and then subscribe to automated notifications for those saved searches (up to a maximum of 15 saved searches per user). Then, the user will receive an automated email notification when funding availability is announced for the Assistance Listing of interest. Searching the “Closed” and “Archived” opportunities for Assistance Listings of interest can provide useful information on the application procedures, goals and objectives, and previously awarded projects to help inform future applications.

Additional guidance and technical assistance on federal grants can be found at the State Clearinghouse at the Governor’s Office of Planning and Research (OPR), which serves as the state's Single Point of Contact for the review of federal assistance applications pursuant to Presidential Executive Order No. 12372. The Federal Grant Administrator at the State Clearinghouse is the primary point of contact for information on federal grants and serves as a coordinator to manage and maximize federal grant opportunities within the state. Up to date information on current federal grant opportunities, news, and training events are provided through a weekly email newsletter. The State Clearinghouse provides free online grant training events to the public, and recordings of these webinars are available on the OPR Youtube page. The Federal Grant Administrator also publishes an annual Summary of Federal Grant Funding report for the State of California, which is available along with many other resources on the OPR Federal Grants Resources page.
